

The Store of To-Day and To-Morrow

An Exceptional Sale of

Women's Hosiery

Women's Gauze Lisle Hosiery

Full fashioned Gauze Lisle Hose of fine gauze with reinforced garter top, heel and sole; black only; value 50c pair.

35c

Women's Pure Silk Hosiery

Special grade of Pure Thread Silk Hose, reinforced garter top and sole; lisle lined; high spliced heel; black, tan and white; value $1.00.

Social and Personal

Says a recent exchange:

"Misses Mary Stuart Cocke and Jeanie Cocke are in New York City,

the guests of their uncle. Robert I.

Club to meet Madame Gadski, Otto

Miss Anfa Case, Putnam Griswold,

Company, in the galleries of the club, 15 Gramercy Park."

Miss Mary Johnston, the authoress who will be given a reception at the Hotel Roaneke on Saturday and will in South Carolina.

Miss Eleanor Wingfield, of 414 West

Franklin Street, is being delightfully entertained in Charleston, S. C., where she is a guest of Miss Dorothy Wallace. From Charleston Miss Wingfield will go to Columbia, where she expects

Both Miss Hampton and Miss Wal lace have invited Miss Wingfield in Richmond, and a great deal of handsome entertaining was done in their

The marriage of Miss Mary Car-rington Dame and Alexander Holladay

Shafer took place last evening at half-after 6 o'clock in the Church of the Ascension at Highland Park, the wedding being the first ever consummated in that church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Meado bride's wedding gown was of white satin, and she wore a tulle veil with Spring Carnival.

The spring carnival, which will be will take place at the school-house

piano solo, Sarah Tume; dialogue, Ernest Fitcher and Samuel Root; piano solo, Elizabeth Wall; recitation, Mason Gaines; violin solo, Paul Reeves; re-citation, Nathan Shasone; rainbow drill, six girls; violin solo, Louise Kellam; song, Mrs. Roane; song, Mr. Tucker; recitation and song, Miss Lumsden; song, Miss Kellam.

Sheppard Webb will be the accompanist, and Evan R. Chesterman will be master of ceremonies. The public Interesting Meeting.

A meeting of the Mothers' Club of Sidney School was held at the school-house on Wednesday, April 2. It was one of the most interesting meetings that has ever been held in the history of the organization, and there were an unusually large number of mothers and teachers present. After the business session was concluded, refreshments were served and a social hour was Studio Recital.

The pupils of Miss Femile Taylor will give a piano recital at her studio, 209 North Thirtieth Street, this afternoon. An unusually interesting program has been arranged, and the affair

Entertained in Washington,
Miss Florence Schneider, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Franklin Schneider, of Washington, gave a luncheon Wednesday at the Cairo, complimentary to her guest, Miss Fritzle Pierce, of Richmond,
The table decorations were of jonquils and ferns, with corsage boungets quils and ferns, with corsage bouquets quils and ferns, with corsage bouquets of arbutus for the guests.

The guests invited to meet Miss Pierce were Miss Lia May Henry, Miss Helen McCumber, Miss Sallie Williams, Miss Clara La Follette, Miss Barbara Stephens, Miss Dorothy Shuey, Miss Nellie Claire Howard, Miss Lanette Hine Smith, Miss Helen Cooper and Miss Corrinne Hunter.

nette Hine Smith, Miss Helen Cooper and Miss Corrinne Hunter.

In and Out of Town.

Mrs. Trusten Polk Draper, of Youngs-town, O., formerly Miss Lina Shields, of this city, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Katherine Gunn has returned to Miss Mary Archer is returning this will be a very delightful one.

Entertained in Washington,

panist.

s invited.

Shafer-Dame.

spend some time visiting Miss address the National Business College in Roanoke on that date, will be the during her stay in that city.

Goritz, Madame Alten, Pasquale Amato, of Indianapolis, Ind. will ly illustrated with moving pictures and Richmond this morning to will be given in the lecture com of be the guests of Mrs. Eaglesfield's brother, Haskins Hobson, at his home at Forest Hill. They will leave town Clay Streets. It is under the direction for Powhatan of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Saturday afternoon where they will visit Mr. and Haskins Hobson at "Mt. Airy" for two weeks. Mrs. Eaglesfield is to dy invited to attend.

be dame of honor at the EllersonPatteson wedding, which will be celegiven at the Highland be dame of honor at the Ellerson-Patteson wedding, which will be cele-brated on April 16. From Richmond Mrs. Eaglesfield will go to Baltimore, where she will spend some time as the guest of Mrs. Arm-casion and the public is invited.

A musical entertainment will be Mrs. H. R. Fitzgerald and Miss Maude Flippen, of Danville, are in Richmond for a short visit to friends.

COMMENCEMENT AT ELON. strong before returning to her home. Of Interest Here.

Miss Constance Stephenson, of Warm Springs, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Russell Cecil on Park Or. and Airs. Russell Countries of the Russell Avenue this week, left Wednesday Harrison. vening for Savannah, Ga., where she till spend several weeks visiting Miss Ella Claire Cutts in that place ery pretty entertaining was done for tiss Stephenson during her stay here, notable among which was a luncheon notable among which was a luncheon given at the Westmoreland Ciub on Wednesday, at which John H. Cecil was host. She was also guest of honor at a theatre party for the opening performance of "The Mikado" on Tuesday evening, and a supper following the theatre at the Commonwealth Club. Miss Stephenson expects to return to Richmond for a short visit, en route guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian H. Cock.

for Warm Springs.

Invitations Out.
Mr. and Mrs. John W. Harrison and Miss Elsie Harrison, of 212 West
Franklin Street, have issued cards for dance at 9 o'clock on the evening Friday, April 18. The dance will given at the Country Club of Virginia and will be an event of much interest to the younger society girls

All the little boys and girls in town are greatly interested in the benefit performance at the Little Theatre to-. The affair will be given under direction of the Richmond Kindergarten Association and the patrons for program, which begins at 11 o'clock

"Wireless Telegraphy" will be the subject of a most instructive and in-teresting lecture by W. H. Thompson, the City Electrician, this evening at 8

Woman's Suffrage Suffrage Suffrage Description Suffrage Suffrage Description Suffrage Description Description Suffrage Description Description Suffrage Description Des

If women were called upon to reg- Watt, ister their votes as to the most satis
Mrs. Eugene Dame, and is a member of plurality of ballots would read

Dunlop Flour

Made in Richmond. Used for Generations.

Makes Everything.

Sold on 4 Continents. The Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.

是一个人的是一个人的

MENICE STATE Same Quality Every Day. PURITY ICE CREAM Monroe 1861.

NEW PROCESS GAS RANGES

Jones Bros. & Co., Inc.

1420 E. Main Street.

REINACH, Inc. 107 E. BROAD STREET

MILLINERY-Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel

Beautiful Bridal Furniture

Sydnor & Hundley, Inc.

Seventh and Grace Streets.

Sample Shoes, Half Price ALBERT STEIN Corner 5th and Broad

Richmond, after attending a house party given at Atlantic City. HAVE YOU SEEN THE Miss Helen Kemper, of Los Angeles, Cal., who is attending the Goucher College, in Baltimore, spent several days last week with her cousin, Mrs. New Method Gas Ranges U. S. Sublett, of 104 North Ninth Street. PETTIT & CO.'S?

week to her home at Vinita, after a short visit to relatives here.

Misses Anne and Mary Traylor ex-pect to go to Old Point this month to visit friends. Mrs. Charles Kennon and Miss Bessie Kennon, of "Norwood," have been the recent guests of relatives here. Miss Estelle Kain is visiting Miss Pearl Schwarzmann at her home in Alexandria this week.

Miss Mamie Howison has returned to Newport News, after visiting rela-tives in this city.

Mrs. A. W. Warde has returned to Richmond, after spending several days with friends in Staunton.

Miss Katherine Burke, have returned to their home in Hinton, after a stay

Miss Lucile Brown, who has been the guest of Miss Sarah Hughes and Miss Margaret Conway in Danville, has re-

Miss Bessle Franklin, of Staunton, guest of relatives and friends in Richmond for a few days.

Miss Arabelle Hayes Dudley, who has been visiting Miss Rosa Brown in Portsmouth, has returned to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lipscomb have been the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tredway Gravely in Danville.

J. G. Carter, of Charlottesville, is spending several days with friends in this city.

Mrs. M. F. Linkus and Miss Mattie Linkus, of this city, are visiting friends in Alderson, W. Va. church, and all interested are cordial-

Mrs. H. R. Fitzgerald and Miss Maude

Dr. C. W. Rent, of University of Virginin, Will Deliver Address.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Elon College, N. C., April 3.—Ebon's commencement this year bids fair to draw a large gathering of people. The ison. Sunday evening, March 80, were invited by the National Arts tion of considerable size from many places for class-day exercises on Satur-May 31, and on Wednesday, June Alfred Hertz, Giorgio Polacco and Al-bert Reiss, of the Metropolitan Opera

Phoenix Guaranteed Silk Hose For Men

Four pair for $2.00, warranted to wear three months, or replaced by new ones without charge; all best colors repre-

See Our 1913 Patterns of GO-CARTS

and CARRIAGES. Rothert & Fourth and Broad.

The House of Fashion Bernard Frances & Co. Broad and Fifth Sts.

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY of packing household goods and china for shipment.

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corporation

The English flat last, for men and women; tans and gunmetal.

$3.50 and $4.00.

Regular $5.00 values.

A Victor or Victor-Victrola

Is not only an entertainer, but velops the musical traits of the

Can you afford to be without

he Corley Company

213 E. Broad RICHMOND, VA.

held sometime during the week beginning April 15.

The literary society representatives will speak on Monday evening, June 2. while the expression, music and art departments will have their annual recitals or exhibits on Tuesday afternoon and evening and Wednesday

The baccalaureate address mission board of the American Christian Convention and a man of national reputation. He is always heard with gladness.

nglish in the University of Virginia, Dr. Kent has made a special has done more than any living man to perpetuate the charming liter-He is one of the most popular of public speakers, and never fails to delight and uplift an audience. His theme will be "The Sovereignty of Life" and the address

TEACHERS HEAR GOVERNOR MANN

First District Association Holds Annual Convention in Fredericksburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., April 3 .- The pening session of the convention of the First District Teachers' Association was held in the public school building here to-night at 8 o'clock, Professor Walter W. Barnhart, of Hodges Mann, Governor of Virginia, made the principal address. Welcome addresses were made by Professor E. F. Birckhead, Jr., superintendent of public schools; Mayor J. P. Rowe and Isaac Hirsh, chairman of the City School Board. Responses were made by Professor Frank B. Brent, of Lancaster County. Music by a male quartet and a violin solo by Miss Adrienne Savee, with Miss Lavalette Bowman, accompanist on the piano, was rendered. The sessions will continue Friday morning, afternoon and night, and corelate Saturday with night, and conclude Saturday with an interesting program for each session. The Fredericksburg Society of the alumni of the University of Virginia will hold its annual meeting in the courthouse here at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 12, as "Founder's Day," falls on Sunday this year. The annual meeting is usually held on Founder's Day. In addition to the regular business there will be social features, including a banquet. Former students of the university from Caro-line, Stafford, Spotsylvania and King George Counties and the city of Fred-ericksburg are expected to attend. Judge A. W. Wallace is president of the society, and B. P. Willis, secretary and treasurer.

A smoker was given by the Fredericksburg Motor Club at the rooms of the Business Men's Association here to-night with an address by Prestor Belvin, of Richmond, president of the Virginia State Automobile Association, on the "Richmond-Washington High way." There was a good attendance the address was heard with much interest and refreshments were served

Dr. H. S. Myers Seriously Ill. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Amherst, Va., April 3.—Dr. H. S. Myers is in a critical condition at his home near Forks of Buffalo, in this county, his illness being due to a stroke of paralysis. For some time past his health has not been good. Dr. Myers, besides being a well-known physician, is president of the Amherst County Sunday School Association and of the county Anti-Saloon League. At one time he also represented the county in the House of Delegates.

Jones-Hicks. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., April 3.—Thaddeus Jones and Miss Alice Hicks, both of Spotsylvania County, came here yesterday and were married last evening at the Colonial Hotel, Rev. Decatur Edwards performing the wards performing the ceermony. They will make their home in Spotsylvania County.

Engagement Announced.

Engagement Announced.

ISpecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., April 3.—Mr. and Mrs. John A. Byers, of Sharon, S. C., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Byers, to Dr. Charles O. Burruss, also of Sharon, S. C. The wedding will take place Wednesday, April 16, at 6:30 o'clock. Dr. Burruss was formerly of this city and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burruss.

NYALL CAMPBELL IS NEXT HEIR TODUKEDOM

Very Clever Young Fellow of Remarkable Musical Attainments.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY. W HAT with the failing health of the childless Duke of Argyll, and the death last week of his brother, Lord Archibald Campbell, the Archibald. It was, in fact, his fondwho having ever since he attained manhood shown marked leanings to-wards Roman Catholicism, has now joined that church. Thus far he has shown no disposition to wed.

into business, Joining the Stock Ex-change, and spending several years in business in Wall Street, New York. It was on his joining the firm of brokers in London with which his name was for a number of years connected that some wag wrote up over the office door of the concern the words, "Tho Lord is with us."

Lord Walter Campbell was most un-fortunate in his marriage. The loveli-ness of his wife was only equaled by her indiscretions, and on a memorable day he abandoned her at Biarritz, tak-ing his two children away from her, and informing her that he washed his hands of her forever, and that if he refrained from Instituting divorce pro-ceedings against her it was because he did not wish to furnish a second chap-ter of the disgraceful story of the matrimonial experiences of his brother,' Lord Colin Campbell, or to tarnish the escutcheon of the ducal house on Sunday evening of commencement.

Dr. Warren H. Dennison Norfolk, Walter, who had been passionately devoted to his wife, salled for Africa in search of change of scene, leaving his children with his father, the late duke. but died within a fortnight after land-ing at the Cape. Lady Walter, who only learned of his death through the newspapers, thereupon married a man of the name of Gordon, and herself succumbed a couple of years later, making no attempt to recover possesmaking no attempt to recover possession or control of her children, which I need scarcely say would have been resisted in the courts by their grandfather, the late duke. Douglas Campbell and his American wife have a young son, ten years of age, who will probably in course of time become Duke of Argyll.

Nyall Campbell has a sister, Miss Elspeth Campbell, an extremely handsome girl, who used to go about a great deal in London with her aunt,

Batter Bread that Makes YOUR MADEWITH Good Luck Baking Powder

"Good Luck's" purity is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act. For sale by grocers everywhere. Ask for it. The Southern Mfg. Co. Richmond, Va.

Use Pratt's Astraal Oil for Incubators.

N. Klein & Son., Inc 620 East Broad.

> DETROIT GAS RANGES. ALASKA REFRIGERATORS. HICKORY FURNITURE,

JURGENS

"Specialists in Apparel for Women." Broad at Second.

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

The Latest in Ice Cream and Cakes from Shepherd's New Factory 2008 W. Broad St. Call Mad. 7148 She possesses the queer accomplishment-for a woman-of being able to play in the most masterful fashion on the bagpipes.

Both Elspeth and Nyall Campbell brother, Lord Archibald Campbell, the latter's only son, Nyall Campbell, comes to the fore as next heir to the dukedom, the entailed estates and the chieftainship of the great Scottish clam of Campbell. He is a very clever young fellow, of altogether remarkable musical attainments, who has several successful operas and a number of Scotch songs to his credit, and who having ever since he attained who having ever since he attained aging the children to sing the purely national airs to the music of the clair schach, as the ancient Highland harp is called. It may be remembered that Next to him in the line of succession to the dukedom comes his cousin, Henry Douglas Campbell, married to Archibald, the fifth Earl of Argyll, an American girl, a daughter of John Laurence, of New York. Douglas Campbell is the son of the late Lord Walter Campbell, who folloged his brother Archibald's example in going troops. His wife, who was half-sister of Queen Mary, was present at the the revenue from the business has fatal supper party when Rizzio was murdered, and also acted as Queen accumulate a second decimal d siness in Wall Street, New York. It is on his joining the firm of brokers London with which his name was a number of years connected that he wag wrote up over the office or of the concern the words, "Tho of the marriage. The lovelists of his wife was only equaled by indiscretions, and on a memorable he at Biarritz, taking the abandoned her at Biarritz, taking the abandoned her at Biarritz, taking the abandoned her at Biarritz, taking the maintained what is perhaps the finest of the disgraceful story of the of the disgraceful story of the maintained what is perhaps the finest words and maintained what is perhaps the finest had been a cumulate a surplus of $100,000. This they term "blood money," and the opinion is expressed among the temporance people that Bristol, Va., will suffer ills for every penny of this money that it stores in its coffers. It is the purpose to hold an election that the shaded to abolish in 1881, but was forced to reconsider its edict by the agitation which he inaugurated; an agitation in which he was supported by the Dukes of Sutherland and of Atholl, by the Mackintosh, and by a significant the city to meet all debts and accumulate a surplus of $100,000. This they term "blood money," and the population is expressed among the temporance people that Bristol, Va., will suffer ills for every penny of this suffer ills for every penny of the money. It is the purpose to hold an election that the colorist had accumulate a surplus of $100,000. This they they to James I. of Great Britain.

It is to the late Lord Archibald campbell for distinctive kills and tartans, which the War Departing in the retention of their distinctive kills and tartans, which the was supported to the retention of their distinc maintained what is perhaps the finest band of pipers in the United Kingdom, After having been educated at Eton and Gottingen, he went into business, beginning with a clerkship in a firm of wine merchants at Bordeaux. of wine informatics at the very cars in a similar capacity with a firm of teabrokers in Mincing Lane, London. In 1880 he spent a considerable time on this side of the Atlantic, and after being entertained in New York for weeks by Cyrus Field, whom he stayed, went on to Ottawa to visit his brother, the Duke of Argyll, then Governor-General of Canada. It was while he was there that the duke and Princess Louise had such a narrow escape from death, through a sleigh accident, owing their rescue, indeed, to Lord Bagot, Lillian May, of Washington, D. C.

Lord Archibald afterwards became one of the partners and active managers of Coutts's Bank, where King George and Queen Mary keep their private accounts, and which he enter-

d on the nomination of Lady Burdett-Coutts. In accordance with the timeregulations and traditions of this old banking house, he was forced to shave off his mustache: shaven faces being required of every one in the establishment, from the senior partner down to the most obscure clerk. It is said that even the office cats at Coutts's Bank have no whisk-

Lord Archibald, who was a great friend and crony of Jimmie Whistler, the artist, stood high in the good graces of Queen Victoria, who had known him from boyhood. While he was at Eton, she used to ask him occasionally was to visit her at Windsor casionally up to visit her at Windsor Castle. On the first occasion he was accompanied by the present duke, then Lord Lorne. She began by inquiring of Lorne what form he belonged to, to which he replied, "The fourth, ma'am Then she turned to Lord Archibald, "And what form are you in, Archie?" and received the amazing reply, "Non-sense, ma'am." Her Majesty, not believing her ears, repeated her question; but the little boy, nothing daunted, insisted with his "Nonsense Then Lord Lorne explained to the Queen that nonsense was really the name of the form which young Archie then adorned, being so called to distinguish it from the form called sense: the difference being that in the latter, the boys' Latin verses had to made sense, but that in the former, the boys might write non-sense, as long as the metre was cor-

Among the hereditary honors to which Nyall Campbell will, in due course, succeed are a marquisate, any number of earldoms, viscounties and baronies, and the hereditary master-ship of the sovereign's household in Scotland; keepership of the Great Seal of Scotland, and the hereditary office of admiral of the Western Coast and Isles. He will also come into pos-session of an heirloom, known as the Brooch of Lorne, which at one time was the property of King Robert Bruce. It is not of gold, but of silver, and is studded with very fine river pearls. It is about four inches in diameter, and looks like a buckle After King Robert Bruce's defeat by the English in 1306, he fled across the Highlands, accompanied by a very few retainers. On August 11, he was intercepted at Dalry, in Argyllshire, by Alexander Campbell, of Argyll. A herce combat ensued, and Bruce's party were forced to retreat, he himself be-ing the last. Three of the Campbells, the father, Alexander, and his two sons, vowed that they would either kill or capture Bruce. Bruce, however, killed the sons, but the father grasped him so tightly that he could not use his sword. With a small ham-mer he dashed out the man's brains. But the Highlander kept his grip on the mantle, so that the King could not free it, to unloose the brooch which fastened it, and had to leave both it and the mantle behind. From possession of the Campbells, and known throughout Scotland as t Brooch of Lorne. (Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood

Company.) BIG ENTERTAINMENT

Employes of Miller & Rhoads Make Merry at Masonic Temple. at Masonic Temple.

The entertainment given by the Miller & Rhoads Employes' Association to the employes of that establishment and their friends last night proved to be a very delightful affair, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large company present.

Although entertainments of this character have now become annual affairs with the employes of the firm, that of last night in every way surpassed in interest and merry-making the best of those of former years. There was feast and fun, and a plenty of it, with "something doing" in the way of genuine entertainment every minute of the four hours that the affair was on Between periods of refreshments and dancing the following program by talented young entertainers, chiefly from the outside, was rendered:

Selection. West End August: tener solo.

entertainers, chiefly from the outside, was rendered;
Selection. West End Angels; tenor solo. Dr. F. S. Splatt; selection. Richmond Mandolin and Guitar Club; recitation. Miss Kelly; solo. Miss Gibbs; piano selection. Miss Josephine Patterson; dance duet, piano and violin, Miss Ernestine Otto. John T. Otto; solo. Casper Deady, duet, piano. Misses Rets Flanagan and Ora Austin; solo. Misse Rets Flanagan and Ora Austin; solo. Misse Ada M. Kuyk; dance; duet, mandolin and piano. C. C. Gebhardt and A. J. Atkinson; solo. Mrs. F. W. Danner; plano selection. Miss Ernestine Otto; selection, West End-Angels.

Diamond Rings

The demand for Diamonds is uni-The prestige of the Schwarzschild store lends value and confidence to our purchase here.

SCHWARZSCHILD BROS. Richmond's Leading Jewelers, Second and Broad Sts.

HIGHI UN LIQUOR

Date of Election in Bristol Will Be Selected at Mass-Meeting To-Night.

Bristol, Va., April 3 .- Much interest is felt in the approaching struggle accumulate a surplus of $100,000.

Abe Lemon, a veteran of the Confederate Army and member of the Fulkerson camp, this city, is a bridegroom. thirty-six years, in Hancock County. Tennessee, on the 26th of March. He writes that he and his bride are living happily on the latter's farm in the mountain region of Hancock County. Mr. Lemon is one of the best-known members of Fulkerson Camp, having for years been active in the work of that hody. But he has in a manner forwith gotten soldier days and gone back to with "love in a cottage."

Bristol's "White Way" is to be tended so as to take in the entire business portion of State Street. This was voted upon at a meeting of the City Council this week. It is conditioned upon the Tennessee authorities taking similar action, and there is hardly any doubt that they will do so.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Gray, Va., April 3.—On Sunday even ing last at 7:30 o'clock the home . W. Denson, of this place, was the scene of a quiet but impressive cere-mony, the occasion being the marriage of his eldest daughter, Miss lola Frances, to George Brown. The parlor was thronged with guests to witness the event. The bride was attractively tron of honor, and Miss Ann Denson as maid of honor. Th is an employe of the Southern road, and is foremost in his profession He was attended by J. C. Dunn. The Rev. S. G. Harwood, pastor of High Hills Baptist Church, officiated. After the ceremony a delightful supper was tended the guests. An informal retended the guests. An informal rewill reside at Grav.

Children Dry TEOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

55555

We call the especial attention to our display of Solid Gold and Silver Mesh Bags.

Smith & Webster 805 E. Main St.

Just for Friday, bargains today throughout the house. J. B. Mosby & Co.

Daisy Bread Save The Labels and Get Valuable Premiums AMERICAN BREAD AND BAKING CO.

A correctly compounded prescription is as essential as a good physician. Try Tragle's

